EXTRACTS FROM THE STANDING RULES OF THE SENATE RULE XXV: STANDING COMMITTEES

1. The following standing committees shall be appointed at the commencement of each Congress, and shall continue and have the power to act until their successors are appointed, with leave to report by bill or otherwise on matters within their respective jurisdictions:

(d)(1) Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs, to which committee shall be referred all proposed legislation, messages, petitions, memorials and other matters relating to the following subjects:

1. Banks, banking, and financial institutions;
2. Control of prices of commodities, rents and services;
3. Deposit insurance;
4. Economic stabilization and defense production;
5. Export and foreign trade promotion;
6. Export controls;
7. Federal monetary policy, including Federal Reserve System;
8. Financial aid to commerce and industry;
9. Issuance and redemption of notes;
10. Money and credit, including currency and coinage;
11. Nursing home construction;
12. Public and private housing (including veterans' housing);
13. Renegotiation of Government contracts;
14. Urban development and mass transit.

(2) Such committee shall also study and review, on a comprehensive basis, matters relating to international economic policy as it affects United States monetary affairs, credit, and financial institutions, economic growth, urban affairs, and credit, and report thereon from time to time.

PUBLICATIONS AND INFORMATION

Committee hearings and committee prints are available, without charge, to the public until supplies are exhausted. Certain publications of the Committee may also be obtained from the U.S. Government Printing Office for a minimal charge. Requests to the Committee for publications should be accompanied by a self-addressed adhesive label (no telephone requests for mailing) and should be directed to:

Document Clerk
Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs
Room SD-534 Dirksen Senate Office Building
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510-6075

The Committee does not and can not maintain a permanent mailing list. Documents are distributed on an individual request basis until supplies are exhausted.

In general, most Committee publications (hearings, reports to accompany legislation, and conference reports) are available on a loan basis from the Library of Congress in Washington, D.C. or at Government Depository Libraries located throughout the United States.
